

Robert Millar President & Director

Mr. Millar is the North Cell Pharmaceutical President & Director who is responsible for strategic marketing, business operations, and partnerships.

He has over twenty years successful senior management sales and marketing experience with start-up, early stage, and fortune-size companies in the application software, Internet services, collaboration technology, financial, EDI, healthcare, biotech/pharmaceutical, meaningful use, and computer industries. His experience includes creating and implementing domestic and global marketing strategies for several companies that achieved the market share leadership position.

Bob was a Director for Vemics Inc. (changed name to iMedicor) from 2003 to 2005 when it became a public company and served in a combination of roles for both Vemics and iMedicor as CIO/Senior Vice President of Sales and Board Advisor for over 10 years. Mr. Millar created the Virtual Meeting Solution Program and Federal Electronic Health Records Meaningful Use Consulting Business for Vemics and iMedicor, respectively.

He has helped several companies to raise capital and is President & Director for North Cell Pharmaceutical and President of EmphyCorp Inc. and is a former Advisor for VectraCor, Inc., X-Factor Communications, Exceptional Parent Magazine, and RoadMap4Life, where he helped launch new drugs, medical devices, career path, continuing medical education, and online SaaS Model services.

Other Key senior management positions held during the past 30 years include: SmartStream Technologies, Zoologic, Inc., CSI Complex Systems, ATS Money Systems, Sharp Electronics, General Electric Information Services, and NCR Corporation.

Bob was a volunteer for two years with the United Nations Group for Accessibility and is interested in youth sports programs.

Mr. Millar holds a BA in Business Administration from Rutgers College and an MBA in Management from Rider College. Bob currently enjoys watching Rutgers Football and Basketball games, plays golf, basketball, baseball (Over 30/40 Baseball League for the last 25 Years: MSBL, USOTB, ALOO, USABL) and plays guitar.